

WORKSHOPS

BRUISES ON THE SOUL: HEALING FOR THE ABUSED, HOPELESS AND HELPLESS

taught by Nate Landis, Urban Youth Collaborative

Kids today are flipping out silently. They are dealing with more problems of abuse that they can define. This workshop will begin with an overview of abuse in its various forms, and share how and when youth workers should intervene. This workshop will also give you skills to help students navigate the pain abuse leaves in its path. The goal is to help you learn how to help kids move from resting in the numbness of abuse to finding a greater life in the Kingdom.

WHEN THE MEN ARE MIA (MISSING IN ACTION)

taught by Jason Queen, New Season Church

Nationwide 60% of children in the city are growing up with female heads of households without a father present (in some cities it's as high as 77%). This workshop will equip you to assist those affected by fatherlessness in a holistic way. We will explore fatherlessness from a multidimensional angle: Who does it affect and how? How can we work together as a community of believers to address the issue?

"SEX ON / SEX OFF": THE WHY AND HOW OF PURITY

taught by Ben & Katie Brinkman, Urban Church

Everything about the age that we live in is saturated with sex. Teens are looking at sexual images on their cell phones through the midnight hours in the comfort of their bedroom. The opportunity to see or engage in sex is just like flicking an on/off switch. It can be difficult for our youth to understand 1) What purity is; 2) Why purity is a good idea; and 3) How to be pure. This workshop will equip the attendee with practical tools, scriptures & activities that can be used to teach students how to protect their body, mind and soul.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

taught by Mike & Debbie Salani, San Diego Christian Worship Center

Youth ministry involves the whole family. No matter how much time students spend with a youth leader, at the end of the day they still go home! When we listen to family situations through only the mouths of our youth it's easy to view parents as obstacles rather than partners in their child's growth. If Momma's not home, Daddy's not connected, one sibling parents another sibling, and Grandma can't "hear" you, then what do you do? How can you help youth live and grow in their families instead of just surviving? Through the use of discussion, video and activities this workshop will help you talk to parents, get them involved, and deal with intense situations. You will gain practical tools in walking out life with youth and their families.

LEADING BEYOND FUMES: RE-FUELING YOUR SOUL AND RE-WRITING YOUR FUTURE

taught by Marc Lewis, Christian Fellowship

"Why do I feel so overwhelmed, depleted, and ineffective at balancing family, life, and ministry?" Your CALL to urban youth ministry was never meant to be at the expense of your own spirit, soul, heart, health and family! We ALL feel the pressure of leading at the intersection of these converging worlds. There is hope! Come learn practical insights and gain proven tools for leading beyond fumes and being FULLY ALIVE in the process!

TEEN TRACK: MOVING STUDENTS FROM SALVATION TO LORDSHIP (2 PART)

taught by Jeff Mears, City Bible Church

One minute you're led by the lyrics of an Artist...the next minute you're led by a Facebook holla...then it's a friend, a bully, or anyone who will give you some attention! But what if you were a teenager being led by a King? What if you had treasure of your own, and not borrowed from a music video? In this session, you will have the opportunity to better understand the concepts of kings and kingdoms. We have seen counterfeits (warlords, gang leaders and religious hierarchies). The goal of our time together is to reintroduce the concept of a king, his kingdom and what it means to be a royal subject and heir to the throne. Come and learn how to be a teenage leader through interactive learning, group discussion, investigation, role-play.

ADDITIONAL WORKSHOPS

HOW SERVING THE "CHURCH FAMILY" CAN AFFECT THE "CHRISTIAN FAMILY."

taught by Cynthia Burton, Faith Chapel Church of God in Christ

This workshop will focus on the affects that serving the "Church Family" can have on the "Christian family." Christian parents, youth and extended family members discuss a reality based expectation of dealing with the various challenges faced while in ministry. Family dynamics, social impact and spiritual accountability are defined in developing a system of support to assist in handling such challenges and to sustain Christian family success.
