

WORKSHOPS

“SEX ON / SEX OFF”: THE WHY AND HOW OF PURITY

taught by Bianca Robinson, Zion Baptist Church

Everything about the age that we live in is saturated with sex. Teens are looking at sexual images on their cell phones through the midnight hours in the comfort of their bedroom. The opportunity to see or engage in sex is just like flicking an on/off switch. It can be difficult for our youth to understand 1) What purity is; 2) Why purity is a good idea; and 3) How to be pure. This workshop will equip the attendee with practical tools, scriptures & activities that can be used to teach students how to protect their body, mind and soul.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

taught by Tina Taylor, New Covenant Christian Ministries

Youth ministry involves the whole family. No matter how much time students spend with a youth leader, at the end of the day they still go home! When we listen to family situations through only the mouths of our youth it's easy to view parents as obstacles rather than partners in their child's growth. If Momma's not home, Daddy's not connected, one sibling parents another sibling, and Grandma can't "hear" you, then what do you do? How can you help youth live and grow in their families instead of just surviving? Through the use of discussion, video and activities this workshop will help you talk to parents, get them involved, and deal with intense situations. You will gain practical tools in walking out life with youth and their families.

BRUISES ON THE SOUL: HEALING FOR THE ABUSED, HOPELESS AND HELPLESS

taught by Dr. Alduan Tartt

Kids today are flipping out silently. They are dealing with more problems of abuse than they can define. This workshop will begin with an overview of abuse in its various forms, and share how and when youth workers should intervene. This workshop will also give you skills to help students navigate the pain abuse leaves in its path. The goal is to help you learn how to help kids move from resting in the numbness of abuse to finding a greater life in the Kingdom.

LEADING BEYOND FUMES: RE-FUELING YOUR SOUL AND RE-WRITING YOUR FUTURE

taught by Darrick Fitzgerald, New Mercies Christian Church

"Why do I feel so overwhelmed, depleted, and ineffective at balancing family, life, and ministry?" Your CALL to urban youth ministry was never meant to be at the expense of your own spirit, soul, heart, health and family! We ALL feel the pressure of leading at the intersection of these converging worlds. There is hope! Come learn practical insights and gain proven tools for leading beyond fumes and being FULLY ALIVE in the process!

REACHING HIGH RISK YOUTH

taught by Jeff Wallace, Peace Baptist Church

One in four youth are deemed at-risk of not developing into healthy adulthood. What works for the majority of kids in a youth ministry generally doesn't work with these kids. Can we offer them more than "three strikes and you're out?" Learn proven models of programming to effectively reach them with the Gospel.

DEVELOPMENTAL URBAN YOUTH MINISTRY

taught by Wendell Martin, Greater Travelers Rest

Urban youth are more diverse and deal with more life issues than ever before. It can feel like all we are seeing are students who act out in the form of poor choices and difficult behavior. Yet, we are not looking for merely a change in actions, we long for true renovation of the heart. This foundational workshop will help you with practical tools to walk out life with your youth. Once you have set up programs, how do you relate? Then we will introduce the ICE principle (instruct, consequences, execution), as a discipline you can use with your youth to build solid relationships with healthy boundaries that lead to transformation, and move the hearts of youth into the depths of the arms of Christ.
